Insurance against loss or damage by fire on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.

The steamer Star of the West was coaled up yesterday with unusual celerity, and report says that she is going to Charleston with troops, although not credited at the office of the company.

Rev. Henry Anthon died in this city this morning.

SCHENECTADY, Jan. 5.

The 26th regiment, under Cols. Bryson and Van Dusen, fired a salute of 33 guns and 33 rockets in honor of Maj. Anderson and his brave men. National airs were performed amid cheers for Maj. Anderson, and Secretaries Holt and Stanton.

WESTCHESTER, Pa., Jan. 5.

There will be a meeting this evening to enroll volunteers in the regiment of Chester county, to offer their services to the government to maintain the constitution and enforce the laws. The meeting is called by members of all parties.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.

Mr. Hughes, the postmaster at Charleston, has written to the postmaster general that he holds himself responsible to the federal government for the revenues accruing to his office for the present. Therefore the postal arrangements will continue unchanged.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.

A Washington despatch to the Commercial says the congressional committee of the border states have agreed upon a compromise; Mr. Sherman assenting. This renews confidence in a final adjustment.

The sloop of war Brooklyn has not yet been ordered to Charleston.

A despatch to the Post says the South Carolinains say the Brooklyn, if sent to Charleston, will be sunk in the harbor. The light house darkened, the buoys removed and batteries opened upon the steamer from Morris Island.

The women of Charleston will spend Sunday making cartridges.

Some representatives from the border slave states said yesterday their people would be content with the admission of New Mexico and Seward's constitutional amendment against interfering with slavery in the states.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.

Gov. Andrew's inaugural was delivered to-day to the legislature. His financial statement shows that $3,775 are to be raised by state tax to cover deficits in previous years. The aggregate amount of taxable property in the state is $897,725,326, an increase of about 50 per cent. in ten years. The enrolled militia of the state exceed 15,000 while the active militia are but 560.—The governor suggests that a larger number be placed in active footing, that the state may be ready to contribute her share of force in any emergency of public danger. The governor favors the abolition of the death penalty. The personal liberty law he believes strictly constitutional. The right of a person to claim an alleged fugitive should always be subordinate to the original and indefeasable right of every freeman of his liberty. He submits the subject to the wisdom of the legislature of the secession question. He treats at some length to the effect that the people of Massachusetts respond to the words of Jackson "The federal union must be preserved."

BOSTON, Jan. 5.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.

SENATE.—Mr. Thomson presented the resolutions of a public meeting in New Jersey, in favor of sustaining the Union. Laid on the table.

Mr. Mason offered a resolution of inquiry that the secretary of war give the senate a copy of any orders issued from the department to the officers commanding the fortifications in South Carolina since the 1st of November, also a copy of any plans or recommendations relative to increasing the forces or otherwise in the forts or arsenals in Virginia or any of the states in the south, by the commander in chief; or if any action or orders were issued in pursuance thereof. Laid over.

Mr. Sumner offered a petition of Moses Gall, of Mass., asking that an amendment to the constitution be made that it may recognize the existence of God. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Slidell's resolution to expel the Associated Press reporter from the reporters' gallery, was taken up, and after a brief discussion he withdrew it.

Mr. Seward presented a petition from the citizens of New York, asking for the passage of the Pacific R. R. bill. On motion of Mr. Gwinn, the Pacific R. R. bill was taken up.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.

Exchange on New York declined three per cent.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.

The Fulton sailed to-day for Southampton and Havre, with 50 passengers and $1,689,974. The City of Manchester also sailed for Liverpool, with 126 passengers.

UTICA, Jan. 5.

Two salutes of 33 guns each were fired this afternoon for Maj. Anderson and the Union. It is proposed to honor the memory of Old Hickory in the same way on Tuesday next, the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.

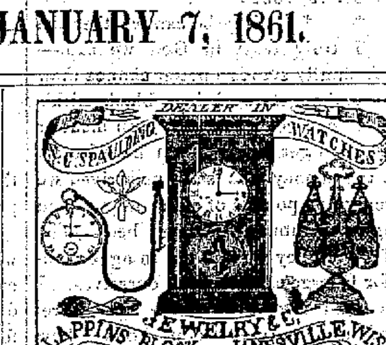

ALTON, Ill., Jan. 5.

A fire broke out last night in the liquor store of Kent & Corey, destroying nine adjoining buildings, embracing the block bounded by Short, State and Levee streets. Loss, $50,000; insured for $25,000. A German named Naknown was burned to death.

ATCHISON, K. T., Jan. 5.

Rev. Mr. Marvin, agent of the Methodist church, reports having received up to the 1st of this month, principally from Illinois, supplies to the amount of 175,037 pounds, which have been distributed through the agency of the ministers and stewards of that church to the destitute throughout the territory. Considerable money has been received also, which has been expended in the purchase of supplies here and the payment of freights.

The Union of this city publishes a statement that there is great suffering among the Pottowatomie Indians, and that two of the tribe have already starved to death.—They have a free reservation and depend principally upon their crops for subsistence, which totally failed the past season.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Jan'y 7, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

A Few Words About Compromises and Other Matters.

The Madison Patriot insists that the cowardice of the north. in the present crisis in political affairs, "consists in the fact that the republican party dare not do right—make a concession or listen to a compromise, for fear of losing the abolition element in that party, and thus yeilding up the fruits of their "glorious victory." The Patriot knows well enough that there is no abolition element in the republican party. That is, forcible abolition. That there are men among all parties, who would be glad to see the slave states themselves peaceably abolish slavery, there is no doubt; but there is no republican who desires to abolish slavery by the action of the general government in the states where it exists. The party at Chicago, and everywhere else have repudiated that idea. The states have a legal right to continue the institution of slavery as long as they please, and as states' rights men, we would resist any attempt to interfere with that institution in a slave state as promptly as we would the violation of any of the rights of Wisconsin, in the confederacy. We will say to the Patriot that this slander, that the republicans are abolitionists, which it, and the organs of its party in the north have persistently circulated in the south, is the cause of the present trouble. You dare tell the truth about us, fearing the southern people will find out the fact that the republicans are not their enemies, while our own papers and orators are not permitted to explain and defend the doctrines of our party in the south, because you have perverted public sentiment, until the people are in a phrenzy. The reason you fear to do us this justice is that you and your party would lose all influence and control over public sentiment in the south, which is the only foundation of any power which the northern democracy can have in the country. It is you who do not dare to do right, but persistently do wrong, and by the means you have brought the country to its present condition.

It is not true that republicans will not listen to compromise, if that compromise violates no principle. They will never agree to a surrender of the territories to slavery. That was the point in the presidential contest, and if we yield that we shall be false to all our professions and deserve the defeat and disaster which would certainly overtake us. On the territorial question there can be no compromise, because if we yield anything we give up the whole question. In a compromise it is supposed that both sides concede something, or it is no compromise—in this case we are called upon to yield our whole ground while the south takes everything and gives nothing. The question of slavery in the territories is not, therefore, susceptible of a compromise.

We do not propose to stand out about the fugitive slave law and the personal liberty bills, if they can be amended so as to secure justice to all parties. We want the fugitive slave law changed so as to secure the right of trial by jury to the person "claimed," in the state where he is arrested, and we insist that the citizens of the free states shall not be compelled to aid in the hunting of men within their borders.

If the south will cease this war upon the Union and stop threatening the north, we will talk over the personal liberty laws with them; but under menaces we don't feel like doing anything. With a proper amendment of the fugitive slave law, the repeal of the South Carolina law which imprisons colored seamen from the north the moment they enter their harbors, and the protection of citizens of the north from the hangings and outrages which are and have been so long prevalent in the south, our laws might be modified. But our right to punish kidnappers of free citizens of this state ought never to be yielded. We certainly never will consent to repeal or change these laws until there is a disposition manifested to do us justice. The day of compromise, all on one side, has passed.

Now while berating the cowardice of republicans, what measures of compromise and conciliation does the Patriot propose? We do not remember to have seen anything definite on that subject. Give us your plan, and if you can introduce one plank into it favorable to the north, conciliating northern sentiment, we shall be obliged to you, and give you the credit of doing what no northern democratic paper has yet done. Let us hear from you.

☞ A Springfield correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says that Gov. Chase and Hon. Amos Tuck, of New Hampshire, are at that place, having been invited there by Mr. Lincoln. It is suggested that Mr. Chase is to be secretary of state and Mr. Tuck secretary of the navy. These appointments would be highly satisfactory to the republican party.

☞ The secession conventions of Alabama and Mississippi meet to-day. The Georgia secession convention meets on the 16th inst. The Virginia and Tennessee legislatures meet to-day in special session.

THANKS TO MR. DURKEE.—We are under obligations to Hon. C. Durkee, our Senator in Congress, for the Washington Daily Globe, since the opening of the present session of Congress.

☞ Mr. McIntyre, the new collector for Charleston, nominated by the president, is a native of York, Pa. It is said that the president has indicated his intention to sustain him in the collection of the revenues, by a war steamer.

☞ The Delaware legislature has passed a resolution unanimously disapproving of secession, after being addressed by a commissioner from Mississippi.

The Legislature.

The Legislature of this state meets on Wednesday, at 12 o'clock M. Quite a number of our citizens, besides members of the senate and assembly, will leave this afternoon for the capital. We notice, also, that Green county has a delegation of outsiders, besides their senator and representatives, who take the cars, this afternoon, at this place. Of course, these patriotic citizens from the two counties don't want any office, but merely desire to see the legislature fairly started in business.

For the Daily Gazette.

My Fast-Day Exercises.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—

I had finished rather a hearty breakfast, yesterday morning, before it occurred to me that the 4th of January was the day set apart by the O. P. F., as a day of fasting and prayer. Of course it was then too late to observe the fast; and I could be obedient to the requisition only in part. There was an opportunity for me to pray. So, being rather religiously inclined, I thought proper first to turn the leaves of an old volume lying on the table before me, and almost the first passage that arrested my attention was the following:

"Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness; to undo the heavy burdens and let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him, and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?"

Then I read the President's proclamation appointing the fast. I confess it made me feel a little indignant to observe the sham piety and contemptible hypocrasy of the whole thing. Only think of it—Mr. Buchanan requesting the people of the United(?) States to humiliate themselves for his own sins! Telling us that the union of the States is threatened with alarming and immediate danger, when all the confusion and dismay that exist, as everybody knows, has been caused by himself! Clearly a traitor to his country and the constitution which he had sworn to obey, having connived at treasonable projects of the deepest, darkest dye; having manifested in all possible ways a disposition to see the States disrupted, how miserably canting and hypocritical the requisition that we look for relief to the "God of our Fathers!" The truth is Mr. Buchanan has turned his back upon the God of our Fathers, and the fathers as well. Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson—he has ruthlessly trampled upon them all! He is no longer President of the United States—he has forfeited all right and title to that high and honorable position. He is but a traitor in the place of power, and is justly deserving of impeachment before the appropriate tribunal. If justice were done, he would be permitted to retire immediately to private life.

Having finished the reading of the proclamation, I was not, probably, in the very best mood for yielding obedience to the mandate of the President requiring me to pray. However, as there was no particular form of prayer laid down in the proclamation, I thought proper to comply, and do the best I could. I need only say that the burden of my prayer—in other words the desire of my heart was,—that the Republicans, both in and out of Congress, might be enabled in this hour of national peril, to stand firm as a rock, yielding not one inch of their vantage-ground, discarding all unrighteous expedients, true to principle, true to the Constitution of our common country! —Under the circumstances, that was the best prayer I could offer. And so ended my fast-day exercises.

NO COMPROMISE.

Janesville, Jan. 5th, 1861.

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—This body adjourned sine die Saturday noon, after a sitting of twelve days, including the November and January sessions. We do not believe equal expedition of business, united with deliberate action, has been shown by any other board in the state. Several questions of interest and importance, aside from the ordinary routine of duties, came before the board, which required time in discussion and settlement; but there was none of the useless talk and disputation too often indulged in legislative bodies. The board was composed of intelligent business men, who knew their duties and were disposed to discharge them promptly and faithfully. If, in any case, an error was committed, no one can assert there was an intention to do wrong or a wilful disregard of the rights of others. If the various towns of the county shall continue to be represented as they have been, the utmost confidence may be reposed in their representatives.

A FORCE BILL IN DISGUISE.—A march has been stolen upon the southern men by Mr Bingham of Ohio. On Monday last he introduced a bill with the unpretending title of an act to further provide for the collection of duties on imports, which, attracting no attention, was read the first and second time, and referred to the committee on the Judiciary. The bill is nothing more nor less than Jackson's force act of 1832.—Mr. Bingham, as chairman of the judiciary committee, will report it back and put it on its passage. The question of coercion will thus come up, and have to be squarely met. This will put some of the members who have been persistently dodging the whole session, in an awkward fix.

☞ It is said that old Buck is greatly enraged at the secessionists for the rapidity with which they push forward their programme. He had hopes of closing his administration without a rupture with them, leaving all the trouble to Mr. Lincoln. The President is disappointed in this, and hence his temper is up, and he is likely, now, to give them fits.

☞ The order for the removal of cannon from Pittsburgh arsenal has been rescinded by the war department.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM KANSAS.—We are permitted to make an extract from another letter from a Kansas sufferer to her friends in this city, which shows the destitution which prevails in that territory. It is dated Marmaton, 10 miles from Fort Scott, Nov. 19, 1860:

* * * May be can weather the storm. I truly trust in God we can.—George's family stands a better chance than we do, as he gets work in a blacksmith's shop. He can get no money, corn meal or flour, but can get beef. I am bare-footed. When the money you sent us arrived we got twenty-five pounds of flour, as we had nothing in the house to eat but beef. The rest of the money we laid out in agne medicine for George's folks and ourselves. I fear we shall always have the ague here. Oh God! my empty, lonesome house; how can I endure it. Poverty stares us in the face, and what we shall do I cannot tell. * * * M. D. BISBEE.

LIBERTY OR DEATH.—The Cincinnati Gazette gives an account of the suicide of valuable slave in Newport, Ky., just opposite that city, on New Year's day. He had escaped from his owner, and an attempt was made to capture him. The fugitive fled with the speed of the wind, but several persons joining in the chase, he was soon surrounded, and finding his escape utterly impossible, he ran in the direction of the Licking river, into which he plunged, and although the stream was extremely shallow, he persistently kept under the water until he drowned, thus prefering instant death to perpetual slavery.

It is a christian institution which produces such scenes as that, isn't it? Is it worth while to dissolve the Union because the republicans resist its extension over the whole country? Such a tragedy as this ought to impel every man who has a heart to sympathize with the weakest of the race in their aspirations for liberty, to renewed efforts to prevent the curse of slavery from spreading over our new territories. We trust the heroic death of this poor slave may have its influence in favor of the establishment of free principles on the soil of Old Kentucky, where he died.

BURNS' FESTIVAL.—The arrangements for this festival are so far completed that invitations will be issued in a day or two. Full committees, with a competent set of officers, have been appointed, and the Hyatt House selected for the place of assembling. The arrangements contemplate a dance and supper. At the supper it is expected that several good speakers will be in attendance, and though no formal address will be delivered, toasts and responses will constitute a part of the exercises at the table. We look for a large attendance and a "good time." This festival has not been undertaken to have it in any respect a failure.

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENTS.—The Milwaukee Sentinel, one of the landmarks of the state, commenced the new year with an addition of a column to each of its ample pages with new type. We are glad to see an old friend prospering so well.

The Milwaukee News and Press also greets its readers with an enlargement and a new dress. Our brethren generally in Milwaukee seem to be "putting on airs" that can be tolerated very comfortably.

☞ A democratic paper in Rhode Island declares that the republicans propose to overturn the principle of the Declaration of Independence which says that "governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed," by compelling South Carolina to observe the laws! That is about the average democratic logic on political matters.

☞ A large majority of secessionists have been elected to the Georgia convention. Forts Pulaski and Jackson have been occupied by the Georgia state troops.

SOMETHING MORE THAN A RUMOR!

A gentleman in this city has just received a private letter from a citizen of this state, now in Washington, who has recently spent several days in the state of Virginia, about fort miles from Washington. It contains important information as to a conspiracy to seize upon the capital and prevent the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln.

The writer of this letter is a southern man by birth, and consequently had better opportunities of obtaining correct information than a northern man. We are not at liberty to give his name, but he is well known in this state as a public man, and his statements are entitled to confidence.

The substance of his letter is that there is no question but that a most formidable conspiracy is formed with a view of taking possession of Washington prior to the 4th of March, and of assassinating Mr. Lincoln! The fact of this conspiracy is vouched for by the writer upon his word of honor. He has had opportunities to know, positively, as he believes, the truth of what he affirms. Companies of men are being armed and drilled for the purposes mentioned.

A meeting was held where the writer had been, at which letters were read from various portions of the state giving information as to the progress of the conspiracy. Not less than 2,000 men it was reported at this meeting, were solemnly pledged to prevent the inauguration of a republican president and vice-president at whatever peril.

GRAND COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLARS.—The Second Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars of the State of Wisconsin was held at Milwaukee on Wednesday and Thursday, of the present week. The following are the officers elect for the present year:

R. E., Henry L. Palmer, Gr. Commander, Milwaukee; V. E. Erastus Lewis, Deputy Grand Commander, Janesville; E. Geo. Hyer, Gr. Generallissimo, Madison; E. B. B. Eldridge, Gr. Capt. County Board of Supervisors.

SATURDAY MORNING, Jan. 5.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, and the minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The committee appointed to ascertain what amount of forfeited bail is due the county, reported. Of all the bonds given during the past four years, which have been forfeited, only two are considered responsible. These two amount to $600. The others could not be collected if prosecuted.—The district attorney was directed to prosecute the two regarded as responsible.

The resolution pending at the adjournment last evening, in relation to the sale of tax certificates, was taken up. This resolution provided for the sale of all the certificates considered valid, and the cancelling of the Janesville and Beloit certificates under the law declared unconstitutional by the supreme court.

Mr. Tallman advocated the resolution, and Mr. Bates opposed it, each at some length, and the vote being taken the resolution was lost by a large vote.

The committee to settle with county officers submitted a report which we shall publish in full.

Gulic Oleson presented a claim of $100—the reward offered by Sheriff Dolsen for the arrest of Peter Oleson, who had escaped from jail. The board allowed $50.

The bond of Volney Atwood, county poor commissioner, was presented and approved.

A bill of $50 from D. L. Mills for recording a list of suits pending in the circuit court, and furnishing a book of record therefor, was presented and allowed.

Messrs. Golden and Scofield were appointed a committee to destroy cancelled orders and certificates. The destruction was accomplished by burning them in the presence of the board.

An appropriation of $40 was made to buy locks for the jail, and $250 for the purchase of stationery for the county officers and circuit court.

The bond of Edward Ruger, county surveyor, was presented and approved.

Mr. Thomas, late clerk of the board, made an explanation in relation to the distribution of county maps, for which he had been censured at a previous meeting of the board. The resolution instructing the district attorney to commence a suit against Mr. Thomas was rescinded, and another exhonerating Mr. Thomas from all blame was adopted.

Mr. R. T. Lawton, late sheriff, appeared with J. A. Sleeper, as counsel, in relation to his accounts, a portion of which had been disallowed by the board. No farther action was taken.

Mr. Tallman introduced another resolution in relation to the sale of tax certificates, which was laid on the table.

A vote of thanks to the chairman and clerk of the board was passed unanimously.

A claim from Dr. A. S. Jones for $35 for a post-mortem examination of the body and a chemical analysis of the stomach of Mrs. Mapes, and from Drs. Treat & Gregory for $20 for a post-mortem examination of the same person, were laid on the table.

The board then adjourned sine die.

SCOTCH WHEAT.—We were shown a sample of Scotch wheat by Mr. Henry Ferguson, which was recently sent him by a friend in Scotland. It is called "Lawrie's Glory," and will answer either for a Winter or Spring Wheat; has a beautiful and plump white berry, and is said to be very prolific. The gentleman who sent it says one head came from India seven years ago. It was sown and re-sown until there were 14 lbs.; the 14 lbs were sown and yielded 7 bushels the first year; and the seven bushels were sown in 1859, and, notwithstanding the drought which prevailed in Scotland the past year, it yielded 118 bushels. The appearance of the wheat, as well at its singular history, invests it with peculiar interest, and we shall watch its growth the coming season with great satisfaction.—Madina N. Y. Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.

The adjourned meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia to consider the present state of the Union, was held at the board of trade rooms to-day. The committee to whom the coercion and non-coercion resolutions were referred, made no report, and their being an evident disposition on the part of many present, who did not participate in the last meeting, to force the passage of the non-coercion resolutions of Judge Lewis, which were resisted by prominent republicans,—an exciting scene of disorder occurred, during which the district attorney showed a willingness to fight on the spot. On motion of a republican the meeting was adjourned, but another was immediately called at the same place and Judge Lewis placed in the chair. Resolutions were then unanimously passed denouncing the personal liberty bill and approving the Crittenden resolutions. The republicans refused to participate in the second meeting, manifesting much ill feeling at the conduct of their political opponents in overriding them.

Public Meeting.

The following call was in circulation this morning for three or four hours, and received a very large number of signatures of all classes of our citizens:

THE CONSTITUTION! THE UNION! LAW AND ORDER!

The citizens of Janesville, without regard to party, who are in favor of the constitution as it is, the union of the states now and forever, as well as the enforcement of the laws, are requested to meet at the court room on Friday Evening, Jan. 11th, 1861, at 7 o'clock.

We hope there will be a general assemblage of our citizens to give expression to their sentiments in favor of maintaining the Union as it is, and enforcing the laws.

Some accounts were presented and referred.

On motion of Ald. Shelton, the finance committee were granted further time to report.

A communication was received from Beri Cook, demanding payment of the judgment obtained by him in the circuit court against the city.

A communication was also received from George B. Ely, attorney for the city in that suit, offering to prosecute an appeal in the supreme court at his own expense if the judgment is not reversed.

On motion, the city attorney was authorized to associate Mr. Ely with him, and an appeal to the supreme court directed to be made.

Orders on the judgment fund to the amount of $566,50 were directed to be issued to Ald. Bates and $75 to Miss Morgan.

The city attorney was directed to proceed to the collection of the unpaid taxes for the opening of Centre avenue. Adjourned.

NEW PAPER.—Herbert Reed's new paper, "The Higher Law," has made its appearance. It proposes to fill or glean from a large field, and the indications in the first number are that it will be ably conducted. Religion, politics, agriculture, general news, and in fact, every thing interesting in a family, are promised to be found in its columns. Dearborn, at Newell's bookstore, has it for sale, or it may be obtained from the publisher at Madison. Subscription price, by the year, $2.

SACK COMPANY ELECTION.—M. C. Smith was Friday evening elected foreman of the Sack company; R. J. Richardson assistant foreman; J. M. Bostwick secretary; J. P. Hoyt treasurer; I. Woodle steward.

EVANSVILLE SEMINARY.—We copy the following statistics from the forthcoming catalogue of the above insitution: whole number of different students, 273; whole number by terms, 501. No institution of its grade in the state has exceeded these figures. This is pretty well for the first year; and gives assurance of success in the future. The next term opens on the 29th inst.

☞ The owner of a lost valise will hear of the finder by enquiring at this office.

FUR CAP LOST.—Two weeks ago last Saturday night an otter-fur cap was lost from the train on the Monroe road, about midway between this place and the Beloit junction. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at the M. & M. depot in this city, or at the Beloit junction.

A COMPLIMENTARY SALUTE.—A salute of 33 guns will be fired in this city to-morrow in honor of Major Anderson and the 8th of January. Put in the powder and let it blaze.

A GENUINE SOUTHERN PRODUCTION.—We yesterday received a letter from a friend traveling in Tennessee, enclosing a genuine Southern secession cockade. For the gratification of our friends who had never seen the article, one of the editors commenced a public display of it in the street; but as he soon discovered that it cost him five cents for every democrat he met, and significant hits about a rail from political associates, he concluded to dispense with that part of the performance, and we now invite those who wish to see an emblem alike of folly and treason, to call at the counting room of the Gazette office.

☞ Florida has elected a convention in favor of secession. It is now in session at Tallahassee.

AN ACCIDENT.—Last evening Mr. Wm. Murdock was driving up Main street very fast, at the same time a lot of boys were riding down the hill on Court street. A sled having two boys upon it, and going almost with the velocity of an arrow, came in contact with the cutter of Mr. Murdock; the sled and boys were thrown twenty or thirty feet, the cutter passing over them. The boys sprang to their feet, and a bystander asked one of them if he was hurt. "No sir," said he, "but I guess their cutter is broke!"

The iron rod that fastened the thills to the cutter was broken; no other damage done.

TEMPERANCE.—Don't forget the temperance meeting at Lappin's Hall this evening, at 7 o'clock. Rev. H. C. Tilton and Willard Merrill will address the meeting.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Amalgamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words in other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming particularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting billious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

Bridget.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache,
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
